

The Q&A...

with Charles Scholtz @ Unbridled Capital

Q: Where were you born & raised?

A: I was born and raised in Louisville, KY.

Q: Tell us about your education.

A: I went to the University of Colorado and graduated with a degree in Sociology. I then went to the University of Kentucky where I received my JD/MBA.

Q: What is your position &/or responsibilities at Unbridled Capital?

A: I am an Associate Manager at Unbridled. I do a little bit of everything including deal and valuation support, marketing, and business development, I am constantly looking for ways to improve the services we offer our clients.

Q: What do you enjoy doing when not working?

A: I have been doing yoga for nearly 10 years and I love to play golf. When I can, I enjoy traveling with friends and snowboarding. I spend most of my weekends exploring Louisville and its growing food scene.

Q: Tell us about your family.

A: My parents were also born and raised in Louisville. My father is a corporate attorney and my mom is a bookkeeper. I have an older sister and a younger brother who both live here as well.

Q: Share with us one interesting fact that most people don't know about you.

A: I am an avid Formula 1 fan. I rarely miss a race or qualifying!

Q: What excites you about the business and our clients at Unbridled Capital?

A: The constant opportunities to learn from our clients and colleagues. The restaurant industry is full of very smart people with a wide variety of experiences. There is always information to be gleaned and incorporated into our strategies and practice.

Q: What is your role in giving back to the community?

A: I am on the Junior Board at the Cabbage Patch Settlement House - an organization serving Louisville's at-risk youth and their families.

Q: What/who inspires you?

A: Whether it's a book, movie, television show, or podcast, I love getting immersed in stories. I find a lot of inspiration in exploring different perspectives and learning about the challenges other people face.

Q: What are you currently reading or podcasting?

A: I just finished reading the Lost City of Z. I love historical nonfiction and stories of adventure and human endurance.
